

Barbara Carter

Living and working in Valencia, California, Barbara Carter has built a career out of painting the natural environment that surrounds her. The artist refers to her painting style as Neo-Pointillism, a technique she developed while experimenting early in her career. Trained in astrophysics from the University of Chicago, Carter chose to pursue a career in art after realizing how strongly she was drawn to it. Her work reflects her enjoyment of the California landscape which she renders in a vibrant color palette.
