

Rene

Rene spent most of her childhood in the French countryside, living with her aunt, a popular local landscape painter. This was the foundation of her love of art.

Rene states, I learned early on to explore and be aware of my environment and to experiment with self expression.

Rene returned to the US for a formal education in fine art later in life. She has been exhibited in many galleries and is included in numerous private collections. Rene continues to paint everyday at her ranch in California.
