

Anthony Tahlier

Known primarily for his photographic work in fashion and food, the ever-charismatic Tony seldom leaves his camera behind. During his free hours he aims the camera lens toward his surroundings, often finding something beyond his own vision. Living in Chicago, there is always an inspiration within range. This ability to realize extraordinary qualities in ordinary objects and locations is apparent in his fine art photography. Tahlier's work can be found in many national publications, international retail stores, hotels as well as public, private and corporate collections.
