

Evgeni Gordiets

Evgeni Gordiets is a Soviet trained contemporary surrealist phenomenon. Scouted at the age of five as a child prodigy, Evgeni attended the National School of Fine Arts: received his Masters Degree from the State University of Fine Arts and his Ph.D. from the State Academy of Fine Art, all in Kiev, Ukraine. After concluding his studies, he joined the National Art University as a Professor of Art. His award-winning work has gained widespread recognition and is held in museum and private collections worldwide. Mr. Gordiets was honored by his peers in Kiev, where from 1977 through 1986 he received accolades, awards and grants ranging from the first prize in United Nations exhibitions to the Top Artist Achievement Award of the Ukraine.

Gordiets' paintings are filled with a profound sense of calm and peace, conveying a longing for eternity and a place of stillness away from our hectic culture. He creates a serene dream-like atmosphere where quietly magical things happen.

"Today, for me, life and painting are one. In my art, the sea, the sky, woman and child are subjects of importance, eternity. Women, the symbol of love, motherhood and eternity, have great importance in my art. In life there are some things that last forever: in my work, I communicate this with the stone carved forms, the sky and water."

Gordiets has received numerous awards and, in 1984, Gordiets' book was published, "In Just My Canvas". His works are held in public and private collections located in the United States, Russia, France, Germany, Finland, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Poland, Canada, Japan and Hong Kong.
