

Daniel Flores

Daniel Flores began his formal painting career after graduating from the School of Art Instructors in Havana, Cuba in 2007. He grasps his inspiration from the rich and vivid colors embodied in fruits and vegetables. Uniquely, Daniel Flores creates a contrast composition with fruits and mute objects capturing freshness against dated elements. Textures of deteriorated wood and antique objects provide perspective on the budding fresh fruits. Flores is evolving his compositions by adding surrealism to further deepen one's perspective of the contrasting fruits and old time feel. Most of his paintings involve both oil and acrylic and on rare occasion incorporate collage. Flores notes that color alone has been a key factor in driving his creativity.
