

Elisabeth Estivalet

Nobody can resist the charm and poetry of the Provencal landscapes of Polish native, Elisabeth Estivalet. A painter whose transcendent evocations in oil of Provence, in the South of France, are winning not only ecstatic praise, but prizes and honors wherever they are shown.

Under her touch, light and color achieve a subtle harmony that speaks of the perfect mastery of her medium - of her art. It is the quality of light and color that Cezanne himself extolled when he chided others for painting only likenesses of nature, instead of a portion of nature itself. Estivalet found in the countryside of France, the inspiration that ignited her longstanding passion for painting and she set to work to master the uncompromising medium of oil painting.

Estivalet soon had collectors and juries in France and abroad singing her praises and honoring her efforts with prizes and exhibitions. As a result Estivalet's paintings are now in collections in the US, Great Britain, Switzerland, Venezuela, and Australia and everyday as her stature and reputation increases, her body of collectors, both public and private only grows.
