

Anna Agusti Hontangas

Anna Agustí Hontangas was born in 1968 in Girona, Spain, which is famous for its rice fields, beaches and natural spaces. This exquisite landscape features prominently in her paintings.

Anna became interested in art at an early age, particularly drawing and painting. She studied Fine Arts at the Sant Jordi School at the University of Barcelona, where she graduated in 1992. Since then, Anna Agustí's work has been exhibited at art galleries and fairs around the world and she has received numerous awards. Her travels have taken her to Africa and Asia, where other cultures and landscapes have inspired her work.

Anna Agustí's works reflect the immensity of open spaces and her intense colors evoke the warmth of the Mediterranean Sea and the landscapes she has experienced in her travels.
