About R.L. Anderson

For the past forty years I have been working in the creative arts as an advertising and catalog photographer. After graduating from Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, California, I spent the next thirty years as a freelance/corporate photographer in the San Francisco Bay area. After moving to the Rogue Valley in 1997, I was the Senior Photographer and Manager of Photography for Harry and David, and Jackson Perkins.

While living in Sonora, California, the foothills of the Mother Load, I came across the paintings of Heinie Hartwig an impressionistic artist. His work rekindled in me a long forgotten dream. I enjoy capturing natural lighting in its challenging qualities and realism in my paintings. My work is also influenced by Albert Bierstadt (1830-1902) and George Inness (1825-1894) as well as, Thomas Cole (1801-1848).

Fine Art Print

Fine art prints are printed using sophisticated printing techniques such as lithography, serigraphy, or giclee prints. They are printed on thick archival quality paper or canvas with inks that last for decades. Besides the exquisite quality of a fine art print, limited edition prints are valuable and may appreciate in value depending on certain factors.
