MUHAMMAD ALI
"The Greatest of All Time"

Muhammad Ali is considered by many to be the greatest boxer of all time, as well as one of the most recognizable figures in modern history. He became the first man to win the heavyweight title three times and revolutionized boxing by introducing a style that swept against many of the sport's traditions. In 1964, he "knocked the World" by defeating the seemingly unbeatable Sonny Liston for the title. Ali would showcase his abilities when he knocked out Liston in their rematch at Lewiston, Maine on May 25, 1967. Just over two months into the fight, Ali landed an overhand right, a punch he would later call the "saccharine punch," knocking Liston to the canvas.

"Champions aren't made in gyms. Champions are made from something they have deep inside them - a desire, a dream, a vision. They have to have bad-motivated systems, they have to be a team. They have to have the skill and the will. But the will must be stronger than the skill."
