About Keith Pawlak

Meet British born contemporary painter, Keith Pawlak. A young artist, whose inspiration and motivation for each work of art is fueled by the colors he sees merged together in everyday life, as well as the breath taking visions he has encountered throughout his many travels.

Influenced by some of the 20th Centuries most affluent artists such as Picasso, Dali, Miro and Matisse, Keith's Marbleized Acrylics and Whacky Canvases capture the human eye through his confident use of colors and creative imagination.

Marbleized Acrylic on Paper

Paper marbling is a method of aqueous surface design, which can produce patterns similar to smooth marble or other stone. The patterns are the result of color floated on either plain water or a viscous solution known as size, and then carefully transferred to an absorbent surface.
