About Michael Sharinski

Michael Sharinski was born in Russia in 1957 and studied at the Kremlin Art Academy. In 1977, he immigrated to Israel, where he furthered his art study at the Bazelel Academy of Art, in Jerusalem. He now lives and paints in the ancient port city of Jaffa.

Seriolithograph On Paper

A seriolithograph (also known as serilith) combines the best of two accepted fine art mediums, the serigraph and the lithograph. Typically printed on high quality art papers, a traditional lithograph is the foundation of the reproduction. The rest of the printing is the done in the silkscreen process. The separations for both processes are hand drawn by the artist. The serilith technique is used primarily to create fine art limited print editions.

Authenticity & Price Match Guarantee: Shop with confidence. ArtRev.com is proud to be the first online art retailer to offer a "lifetime authenticity guarantee" with every limited edition or original work of art. Most limited edition and original artworks ship with a Certificate of Authenticity free of charge. This certificate is an official and valuable document that most insurance companies require in order to insure artworks against damage or theft. ArtRev.com will make every possible attempt to match or beat the advertised price of any major Internet competitor, art gallery, or frame shop; given that they are authorized to sell the item from the publisher or artist, and have the exact item in stock available for immediate sale.

Pricing & Availability: Due to the dynamic nature of the ArtRev.com website, prices and availability are subject to change without notice. ArtRev.com is not responsible for any pricing errors.
