About Wyland

Robert Wyland was born in Detroit 1956. Known simply as Wyland, is one of the world's premier ocean artists. He is perhaps best known for painting large, outdoor murals of whales and other ocean life. He has been a pioneer in the marine art movement since 1971. This painter, sculptor, and muralist is one of the most prolific and celebrated artists of our time.

To date, in addition to his spectacular paintings of a wide variety of marine life, Wyland has completed more than 84 of his landmark murals, the renowned "Whaling Walls", throughout the US, as well as Canada, Japan, Australia, Mexico, France and New Zealand.

Serigraph on Paper

Screen printing or Serigraphy is a printing technique that uses a woven mesh to support an ink blocking stencil. The attached stencil forms open areas of mesh that transfer ink as a sharp-edged image onto a substrate. A roller or squeegee is moved across the screen stencil forcing or pumping ink past the threads of the woven mesh in the open areas.

Credit is generally given to the artist Andy Warhol for popularizing screen printing identified as serigraphy, in the United States. Warhol is particularly identified with his 1962 depiction of actress Marilyn Monroe screen printed in garish colors.
