About Kelley Jarvis

Kelley Jarvis, a professional self taught Illustrator- Animator- Cartoonist was born in Danbury, CT in 1968. As a young child, while most kids where outside playing, Ms. Jarvis was inside with pencil and paper in hand creating images and giving life to animals and creatures only alive in her imagination. Inspired by the likes of animators, Chuck Jones, Hanna-Barbera, and Disney's Nine Old Men.

As time progressed, she continued to feed her passion of art, animation and animals and for the last 15+ years, Ms. Jarvis has been director and senior illustrator for her company called Jarvis Arts!

Jarvis Arts! has been a leading provider of licensing illustration and graphic design for long standing clients like Warner Brothers, Dreamworks SKG, Turner Entertainment, Hasbro, Cartoon Network, and many others. Illustrating her favorite characters like Bugs Bunny, Daffy Duck, and the many other great animated characters we all love from our childhood.

Kelly Jarvis drew the 'Tom & Jerry' newspaper strip in the 1990s. The strip was distributed by Editors Press Service. Jarvis has also worked as a penciller on DC's 'Animaniacs' title.

After 10 successful years, 32 children's books, 41+ Coloring/activity books, 8 education book series, numerous packaging designs, a USPS stamp program, comic books and more, it was time to take a break.

After a hiatus from the industry for 6 years, to start a family, Ms. Jarvis is back with JARVIS ARTS!, a design studio focusing again on the licensing industry but also some creator owned ideas and promotions.
