About Ion Plubeu

Ion Plubeu was born on July 27th, 1961, in Bucovina, Romania. He has been a member of the Romanian Artists Association since 2000. He received a Masters in Ambient Arts from the University of Bucharest and a degree in Mural Fine Arts from the University of Fine Arts in Bucharest in 1999.

Plubeu travels extensively with much of his inspiration coming from Europe's great cities. He captures historic architecture, nostalgia and the essence and personality of these cities in an instantly recognizable style.

Plubeu uses large brush strokes and thick textures richly layered on the canvas to add energy and dynamism to his scenes. His combination of muted tones and thick, almost abstract, texturing draws the viewer into the scene - one can hear the hustle and bustle of the busy streets as if we were there.

He has had several joint and individual exhibitions throughout Europe, and has done murals in Bucharest, Craiova and Oradea.

Original Mixed Media
