About Daniel Gerr

Born in Yugoslavia in 1957, Daniel moved to Russia where he studied at the Kremlin Art Academy. In 1977 he immigrated to Israel where he continued his education at the Bazelel Academy of Art in Jerusalem. The street scenes influenced him where ancient buildings are decorated with signs and symbols of modern society. He now lives in the old city of Jaffa.

Seriolithograph On Paper

A seriolithograph (also known as serilith) combines the best of two accepted fine art mediums, the serigraph and the lithograph. Typically printed on high quality art papers, a traditional lithograph is the foundation of the reproduction. The rest of the printing is the done in the silkscreen process. The separations for both processes are hand drawn by the artist. The serilith technique is used primarily to create fine art limited print editions.
