About Jean Claude Maas

Jean Claude Maas was born in 1946 in Paris, of Dutch origin.

Maas rejoices in life, in the simple miracle of existing, and the essential right of every human being to dream.

Coming from a poor and big family (six children) Jean Claude Maas went to work at an early age to help support his siblings. He attended evening classes at the City of Paris Art School where he eventually became a teacher.

Maas seventy plus years of dreaming are fortunately dispersed in a legacy of artworks unlike any other in the world of contemporary expressionists. His popularity is such that his paintings can be found in museums, galleries and private collections around the globe.

Original Mixed Media

An original artwork that has been hand-crafted by the artist using a variety of materials and more than one medium.
